

Personal Injury Group: Motor Vehicle Accidents

Car accidents may be common, but they disrupt the lives of the affected victims. Thankfully, most car accidents are minor and involve only property damage or limited injuries. However, those that involve serious injuries or fatalities warrant consulting with an attorney - there is no fee for the consultation. We can help you with sorting out disputed issues of fault and insurance coverage. While most cases settle, lawsuits may be necessary.

At Levene Gouldin & Thompson, LLP, we will help you collect evidence relevant to your accident, give notice to the responsible driver and that driver's insurance company, determine whether you may have an additional claim with your own insurance company, and work to negotiate a fair settlement for your losses.

If a fair settlement is not offered, we will commence a lawsuit for you within the court deadlines and aggressively pursue the litigation. While a settlement may be reached at any stage, our attorneys are prepared for trial before a jury if necessary. We have extensive courtroom experience with car accident cases. Our respected track record across the Southern Tier of New York and Northeast Pennsylvania makes Levene Gouldin & Thompson, LLP uniquely qualified to represent car accident victims.
